A

VII: "Inhabitants" dispersed over surface.

Key

(i) The capital letters A, B, C, correspond to types of scroll work.

A is the single running scroll.
B is the double or medallion scroll.
C is the free scroll in which the stem winds across the available surface in a curvilinear pattern.

It is subdivided into:

C1: the scroll covers freely the available surface.
C2: the two central loops at one end of the field form a vertically placed heart-shaped pattern.
C3: includes a vertical row of medallion scrolls.
C4: combines a central vertical row of medallion scrolls with a horizontally placed heart-shaped pattern on either side of the lowermost scrolls.

(ii) Types of vegetation are indicated by symbols:

O-acanthus
X-vine
*-ivy

(iii) The Roman numerals, I, II, III, IV, V, VI and VII describe the arrangement of inhabited scrolls in relation to their issuing-point:

I, II and III concern scrolls in narrow strips of borders.
IV, V and VI concern scrolls in fields.
VII may apply to any sort of surface, border or field.
