

Daniel Bach, Relations between Franco, Nigeria and selected Francophone - 1 - states in West Africa, 1960-75
Trinity Term 1978 St Anthony's College

For the use of the Examiners only. Please return to the candidate immediately after the oral examination.

KEY TO THE CONFIDENTIAL SOURCES

Page 17

- a Report shown to the author by the Père de Benoit, formerly Editor of L'Afrique Nouvelle. Paris,
3 September 1975.

Page 31

- a Chief Hezekiah O. Davies, Interview, Lagos, 9 November 1974.
- b H.O. Idowu, 'The Challenge of Independence; Nigeria and Senegal' (Lagos, Nigerian Institute of International Affairs, mimeo, 1970), pp. 295-6.
- c Ibid., p. 296.

Page 142

- a Ibrahim Tahir, Interview, Oxford, 1 May 1975; Guy Nicolas, Interview, Paris, 2 September 1975.

Page 154

- a Sir John Fletcher-Cooke, Interview, Oxford, 16 March 1978
Sir John was in Ivory Coast at the time of the visit of Nyerere with whom he later discussed these incidents.

Page 156

- a Roland Pré, Interview, Paris, 18 April 1975; Governor Roland Pré is a longstanding friend of Houphouët Boigny to whom he introduced Raphael Uwechue in 1967.

Page 157

- a Roland Pré, Interview, Paris, 18 April 1975
- b Ibid.

Page 158

- a N.Azikiwe, 'Military Revolution in Nigeria, A Political History 1960-1970' (London, 1971, mimeo), no page numbers.
- b Ibid. NB: This manuscript was never published.

Pages 159, 163 and 165

- a Azikiwe, 'Military Revolution...'

Page 172

- a Pasteur Roux, Interview, Cotonou, 9 January 1975.

Pages 185 and 189

- a Azikiwe, 'Military Revolution....'

Page 209

- a Mr and Mrs. Boyd, Interview, Sokoto, 17 December 1974. These two witnesses lived for many years in Northern Nigeria and speak fluent Hausa.

Page 218

- a Documents shown to the author by Jacques Batmanian. Dr Batmanian (alias Jacques Baulin) was successively a political adviser to Houphouët Boigny (1963-1969) and Diori Hamani (1969-1972).

Page 254

- a Nwokedi received active help from Uwechue; John de St Jorre, Interview, London, 10 July 1974.

Page 255

- a Marc Barbey, Interview, Paris, 16 April 1975. Marc Barbey was French Ambassador to Nigeria (1966-1971).

Page 256

- a Documents shown to the author by Marc Barbey.
- b Ibid.

Pages 280 and 281

- a Azikiwe, 'Military Revolution in Nigeria...'

Page 289

- a Raymond Offroy, Interview, Paris, 17 April 1975.

Page 294

- a Dr Marcel Diennet, Interview, Paris, 22 April 1975.
Dr Diennet worked for the CRF at Libreville airport.

Page 295

- a Document shown to the author by Marc Barbey.
b Ibid.

Page 296

- a Professor S. Ukpabi, Interview, Oxford, 24 May 1978; Professor Ukpabi was a Colonel in the Biafran Army.
b Robert Louis, Interview, Paris, 21 April 1975.

Page 297

- a Azikiwe, 'Military Revolution...'

Page 327

- a In particular, sales of derelict material were set up as a cover for transfers of funds; Charles Créttien, Interview, London 21 May 1978.
Charles Créttien was press attaché to the Ministry of Cooperation during Pompidou's Presidency.

NB: All these documents may be ^{freely} consulted in the French national Archives (Fonds David Boeck cote: 76944/1 - 76944/51
D. M. M.