

Paradoxical reaction to anti-tubercular treatment in a case of pulmonary tuberculosis

Figure 1: Heterogeneous, bilateral infiltrations in the upper lobes of both lungs.

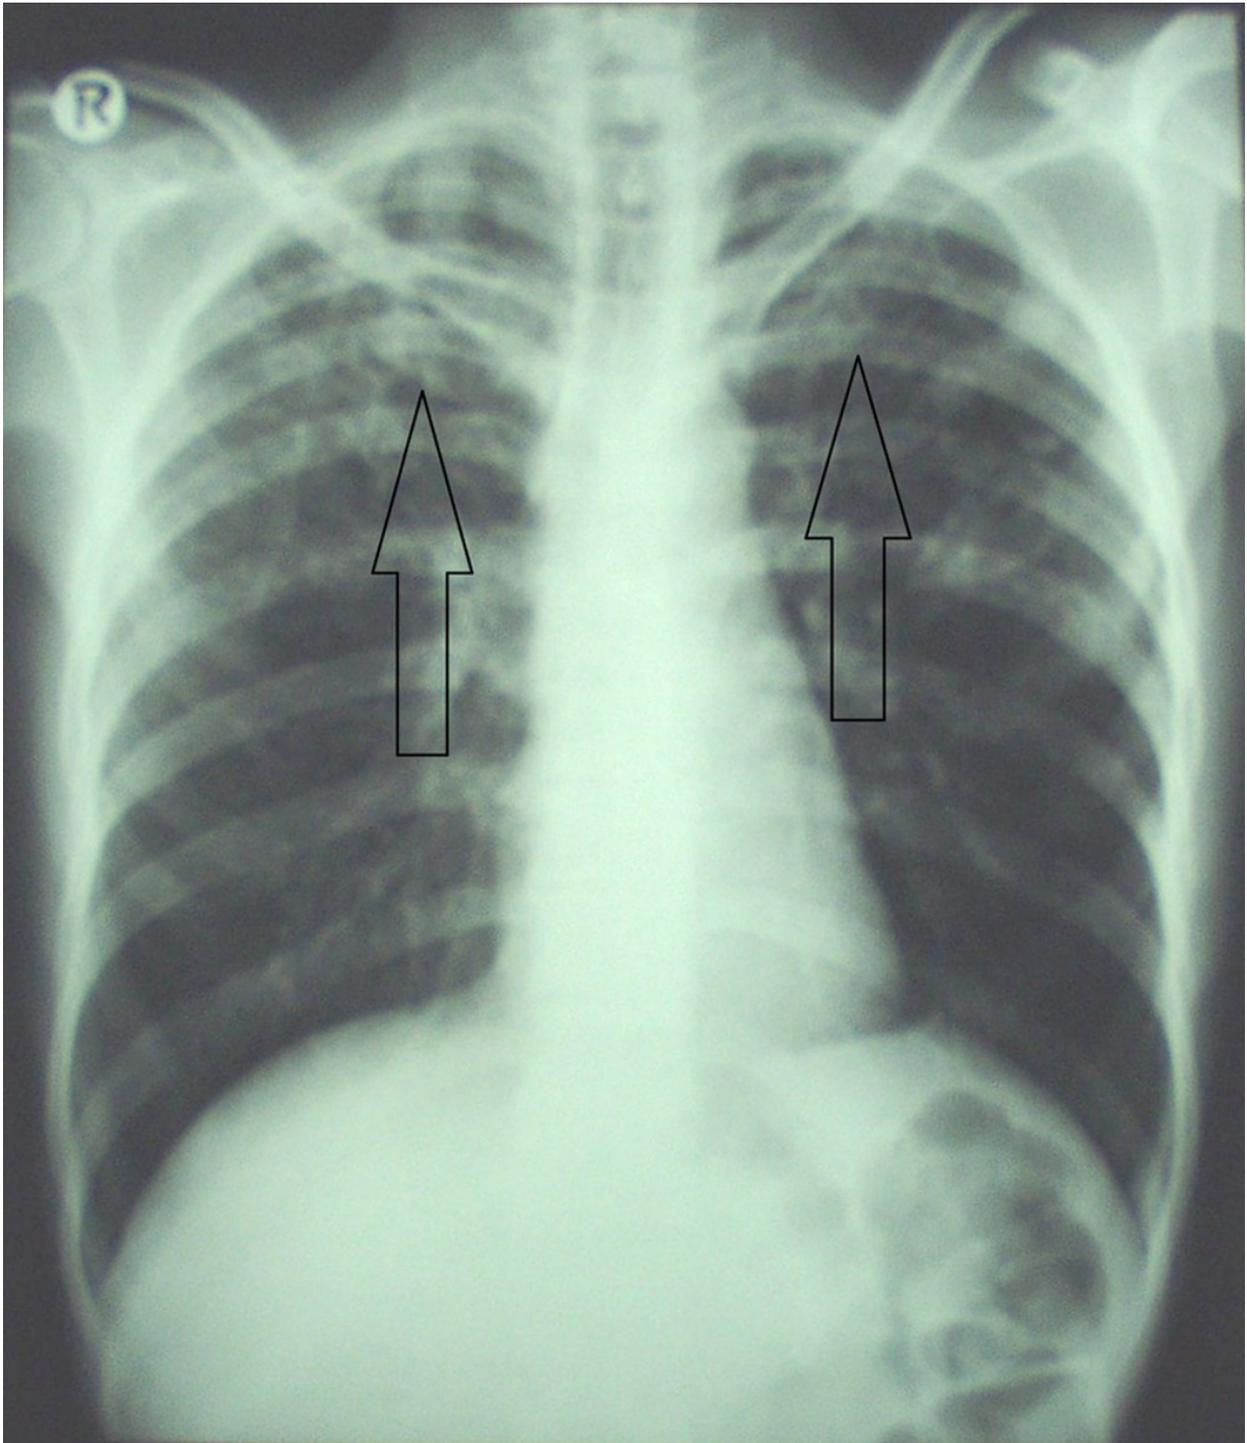

Figure 2: Gadolinium -enhanced, magnetic resonance images showing multiple high signal intensity foci in frontal, bilateral parietal and occipital lobes.

