

Table of Contents

1. INTRODUCTION	20
I. Kierkegaard, Bonhoeffer, and the Problem of Influence	20
II. Secondary Sources	22
III. The Direct Relationship	33
A. Direct References	33
B. Bonhoeffer's Library	36
C. Bonhoeffer and Germany's Kierkegaardian Sitz im Leben	41
D. Summary	48
IV. A Theory of Bonhoeffer's Influence	49
V. Beyond Influence	52
VI. Chapter Summary	55
2. 1848 AND ALL THAT: THE ROAD TO KIERKEGAARD'S ATTACK ON CHRISTENDOM	58
Introduction	58
Part 1 – Kierkegaard and the Events of 1848	61
I. 1848 and the Effects of the Danish Revolution	62
A. The Authenticity of the Revolution and the 'Life-View'	63
B. The Consequences of the Revolution and the 'Common Man'	68
II. The Corsair Affair	74
III. Finances	76
IV. Health	77
V. Governance at Work	79
Part 2 – Kierkegaard and the Effects of 1848	81
I. Period I: Penitence and Pseudonymity 1843-c.1847	81
II. Period II: The Direct Pseudonym c.1848-1850	82
III. Period III: The Turning of the Tide 1850-1851	85
IV. Silence 1851-1854	89
A. Regine and the Common Man	90
B. Mynster	93
Concluding Remarks	94
3. ATTACK ON IDEALISM – KNOWLEDGE	95
Introduction	95
Part 1 – The Attack	96
I. Kierkegaard	96
A. Methodological Confusion	97
B. Impossible Beginnings	98
II. Bonhoeffer	98

A. Hegel and the Plight of Philosophy	99
B. Idealism and Sin	102
III. Bonhoeffer and Kierkegaard Considered	103
A. Reality	104
B. Time	110
IV. Some Preliminary Remarks	114
Part 2 – The Reconstruction	114
I. Transcendental and Ontological Approaches	115
A. Bonhoeffer’s Criticisms of Barth	119
II. Bonhoeffer’s Ecclesiological Approach	121
A. Barth Redeemed	123
III. Kierkegaard and the Transcendental Approach	124
A. Kierkegaard and Subjectivity	124
B. Subjectivity as Irrationalism?	127
C. Bonhoeffer’s Criticisms of Kierkegaard Reconsidered	130
Concluding Remarks	137
4. ATTACK ON IDEALISM – ETHICS	139
Introduction	139
Part 1 – Idealism and the Teleological Suspension	140
I. Kierkegaard	140
A. The Realms of the Ethical and the Ethical	140
B. The Knights of Faith and Infinite Resignation	142
C. The Teleological Suspension of the Ethical	145
D. Absolute Duty to God	146
E. Summary	147
II. Bonhoeffer	147
A. Ethics and the Fall	148
B. Christian Ethics?	149
C. The Ethical Situation	150
D. Responsibility	151
E. Reality	152
F. Situationalism and the Divine Order	153
G. The ‘How’ of Simple Obedience	157
III. Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer Considered	160
A. The Two Realms	160
B. Bonhoeffer and Abraham	161
C. The Teleological Suspension of the Ethical	163
D. An Absolute Duty to God	168
E. The Mediation of Love	170
IV. Bonhoeffer and FT ’s Individual	172
V. Some Preliminary Remarks	174
Part 2 – The Separation of God and Neighbour	174
I. Kierkegaard and the Desire for the Human Other	175
II. Kierkegaard the Nihilist?	178

Concluding Remarks	182
5. ATTACK ON IDEALISM – CHRISTOLOGY AND DISCIPLESHIP	184
Part 1 – Christology	184
I. Kierkegaard	184
A. History	184
B. Paradox	186
C. Offence	187
D. Incognito	189
E. Doctrine	191
F. Contemporaneity	192
II. Bonhoeffer	193
A. ‘Concerning the Christian Idea of God’	193
B. Christology	197
C. Discipleship	203
III. Some Preliminary Remarks	204
Part 2 – Discipleship	205
I. Cheap Grace	206
A. Kierkegaard	206
B. Bonhoeffer	209
II. Suffering and Imitation	215
A. Kierkegaard	215
B. Bonhoeffer	216
III. Luther	222
A. Kierkegaard	222
B. Bonhoeffer	224
IV. Faith and Obedience	226
A. Kierkegaard	226
B. Bonhoeffer	228
V. Discipleship	232
Concluding Remarks	236
6. THE ATTACK ON CHRISTENDOM	238
I. Kierkegaard	238
A. The Road to 1848	239
B. Personal Confessions and the New Pseudonym	243
C. The Direct Communication	246
D. The Moment and Later Writings	248
II. Bonhoeffer	255
A. Religionless Christianity in a World Come of Age	256
B. The Church in a World Come of Age	269
III. Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer Considered	272
A. Some Critical Observations	274
B. Parallels and Influence	277

Concluding Remarks	294
7. CONCLUSION	299
I. Influence	299
II. A Question of Community	302
III. Bonhoeffer the Reformer?	306
Final Remarks	310
BIBLIOGRAPHY	312