Which OA publishing routes are available?

Open access may come with an ‘article processing charge’ or APC. However an APC may not need to be paid if an acceptable OA self-archiving option is available.

OA Charges

Publishing open access articles at the University of Oxford

Funders often have specific requirements for OA that funded authors need to consider when publishing.

Common requirements:
- Funder Acknowledgement
- Data Accessibility Statement
- Rights Retention
- Specific licences (e.g. CC BY)
- Green OA embargo limit
- An EPMC deposit

Check our website for requirements and templates.

If you’re Plan S funded use Journal Checker

If you're Plan S funded use Journal Checker

Funded author? Check your open access options using the Sherpa Romeo website

Green OA has no cost. Publishers often only allow the deposited manuscript to be viewed after an embargo.

Certain funders have limits on how long an embargo can be.

OA Embargo

I want to publish my article open access

When signing check which licence your work will be published with. Many funders require CC BY attribution licence.

Submit your article to the publisher (use your @ox.ac.uk email address)

Remember to include the rights retention text if required

Article is published on publisher’s website

Congratulations! Your article is now open access.

Any questions? Email: openaccess@bodleian.ox.ac.uk Hyperlinks present in this document

http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/templates http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/funders-overview https://v2.sherpa.ac.uk/romeo https://journalcheckertool.org http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/open-publication-routes/http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/embargo/http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/publisher-deals/http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/oxford-apc-application/http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/contact-us http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/rights-retention/http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/home-2/act-on-acceptance/https://plus.europepmc.org/user-guide https://creativecommons.org/about/cclicenses/