

Publishing open access articles at the University of Oxford

I want to publish my article open access

Funded author?

Funders often have specific requirements for OA that funded authors need to consider when publishing.

Common requirements:
Funder Acknowledgement
Data Accessibility Statement
Rights Retention
Specific licences (e.g. CC BY)
A Green OA embargo limit
An EPMC deposit

Check our website for requirements and templates.

Check your open access options using the Sherpa Romeo website

If you're Plan S funded use Journal Checker

Which OA publishing routes are available?

Green

Journal allows OA via self-archiving in a repository

Hybrid

Subscription journal publishes a single article OA for a charge

Gold

Journal publishes all their articles OA

OA Charges

Open access may come with an 'article processing charge' or APC.

However an APC may not need to be paid if an acceptable OA self-archiving option is available.

Is there a charge to publish OA?

Y

N

OA Embargo

Green OA has no cost. Publishers often only allow the deposited manuscript to be viewed after an embargo.

Certain funders have limits on how long an embargo can be.

Can you cover the costs?

Covering costs

UKRI, Wellcome, CRUK & BHF have APC block grants held at Oxford.

Other funders have alternate methods for payment. See our funder page for info.

Need Funds?

If you do not have funds from an Oxford block grant nor applicable publisher agreement, your options are:
> Alternative funders.
> Your department.
> Other funds available to academics in your field.
> Explore the self-archiving route as a no-cost alternative.

Need Help?

If you are planning to publish using a publisher agreement OR one of Oxford's block grants please contact the Helpdesk if you need more information.

Submit your article to the publisher (use your @ox.ac.uk email address) Remember to include the rights retention text if required

Article is accepted by the publisher for publication

Sign Publisher Agreement

When signing check which licence your work will be published with. Many funders require CC BY attribution licence.

No matter how you publish OA, you should always act on acceptance and archive your manuscript into ORA.

Some funders require that a copy of the manuscript be deposited into Europe PubMed Central within a specified timescale. Some journals will do this on the researcher's behalf but it's best to check!

Deposit manuscript in repository

Article is published on publisher's website

Congratulations!

Your article is now open access.
