John Hooper and his Networks:
a Study of Change in Reformation England

Alison Jill Dalton

A thesis submitted for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the University of Oxford

2008
Contents

Abstracts i
Acknowledgements xii
List of Abbreviations xiv

Chapter 1. Introduction 1
- The Network Approach 3
- Analytical Methodologies 6
- Working Definitions 9
- The English Reformation as a Process of Change 11

Chapter 2. Patronage, Protection and Persuasion: the Years Before 1545 14
- Family Connections 16
- Court Connections 24
- Other Connections 29

Chapter 3. Dependencies, Alliances and Associations: 1545-1549 34
- Civic Connections 35
- The Mechanisms of the Evangelical Network 39
- The Ethos of the Evangelical Network 48
- Return to England 50

Chapter 4. Cooperation, Conflict and Conciliation: Hooper and the English Court, 1549-1551 53
- Hooper and the Privy Council 54
- Cooperation into Conflict 72
- Conciliation 78

Chapter 5. Interdependence, Aspiration and Authority: Hooper and Other Reformers, 1549-1553 84
- The Maintenance of the Network 85
- Disputes among the Evangelical Network 103

Chapter 6. Gloucestershire and Worcestershire in the Mid Sixteenth Century 124
- The County Towns 128
- The Dioceses 133
- The Parishes 139
Chapter 7. Obligation, Allegiance and Loyalty: Clerical Networks

- Aims and Actions
- Obligation
- Allegiance
- Loyalty
- The Relevance of Hooper’s Approach
- The Success of Hooper’s Approach

Chapter 8. Duty, Dynasty and Devotion: Lay Networks

- The Nature of Civic Government
- The County Elite
- The Context and Response

Chapter 9. The Ties that Bind: Conclusions

Appendices

1. Extant letters from and to Hooper
2. Wills of Clothiers, 1550-1600: Gloucestershire
3. Ownership of Advowsons during Hooper’s Episcopates: Gloucester and Worcester Dioceses
4. Occupations of Clerical Supporters, 1544-1554: Gloucester and Worcester Dioceses
5. Changes in Incumbency of Livings, 1551-1553: Gloucester Diocese
6. Oxford Graduates among the Clergy during Hooper’s Episcopate: Gloucester Diocese
7. Extant Wills of Clerical Testators who were Incumbents during Hooper’s Episcopates, by Reign: Gloucester and Worcester Dioceses
8. Parishes of Priests Deprived for Marriage in 1554: Gloucester Diocese
9. Senior Civic Officials, 1547-1553: Gloucester
10. Senior Civic Officials, 1547-1553: Worcester
11. Connections between, and Religious Affiliations of, Senior Civic Officials: Gloucester
12. Connections between, and Religious Affiliations of, Senior Civic Officials: Worcester
13. Justices of the Peace, 1531-1558: Common Commissioners, Eight Counties
14. Justices of the Peace, 1531-1558: Gloucestershire
15. Justices of the Peace, 1531-1558: Worcestershire
16. Justices of the Peace, 1531-1558: Gloucestershire and Worcestershire: Sources

Bibliography